840 km alone on foot through the Pyrenees

WHEN: Wednesday, 19 February, from 5:30 p.m.

WHERE: Vinotéka Sommellerie (Filadelfie Building shopping passage)

Why do people set out on long solo treks? Is it because of the solitude, peace and quiet? Or is it just an ordinary desire for freedom and adventure? After a two-year pause from long-distance solo walking, Jakub Šolc headed out on another of his grand treks, crossing the Pyrenees from the Atlantic to the Mediterranean Sea. He performed this crossing in 29 days and walked 840 km.

In the Pyrenees, it is easy to immerse oneself every day in breathtaking nature that can astound you, but also torment you at every step. But it is guaranteed to clear your head and mind, and perhaps you will even find some new friends. If you enjoy mountain trekking, or you just want to find out how it is when you escape from the hustle and bustle of city life, while your days are filled with just the need to drink, eat, walk and sleep, then this lecture is for you!
