Traveller's evening: The natural treasures of Brazil

WHEN: Wednesday, 16 October, from 5:30 p.m.

WHERE: Vyskočilka Restaurant (Vyskočilova 1561/4a)

Everyone thinks of endless beaches, cities of millions like the Carnival city of Rio, football and the impenetrable Amazon when someone says Brazil. We would like to present a different, perhaps a more beautiful Brazil, one that is hidden in the Brazilian highlands or in the burning sands and remains a secret to ordinary tourists.

Presented by: Lenka and Pavel Ečer

Places cannot be reserved and entrance to the event is free of charge (also suitable for children).

dm supports start-ups

dm has decided to support start-ups of small producers by introducing their products or innovative projects to the market. During the cooperation, dm offers starting entrepreneurs with creative visions room for the development, presentation and sale of their products. Under the motto "Large helping small", dm wants to give small producers a chance to start up their business success, while offering the most successful of these a spot on the shelves of dm shops.

Becoming successful just got easier

Entrepreneurs, small producers and small companies that are interested can apply with their projects by 30 January 2020. You can find the application conditions and a brief form on the web pages www.dm.cz/dmstart. dm will subsequently choose the best of these with an expert panel of judges and offer to include their products in its assortment together with marketing support through the entire internal and external communication network.

Balance Club Brumlovka introduces new ecological measures

We can't avoid the production of waste when providing services, though Balance Club Brumlovka would like to work on eliminating it and improving the efficiency when handling waste, so you might notice the new measures that the club is gradually implementing. These include the disappearance of single-use cups (which will be replaced with returnable cups), while the sorting areas and waste baskets are more clearly marked. Change starts with each of us and Balance Club Brumlovka will show how we can go through this transformation together. You can find detailed descriptions of the concrete changes in the new issue of Balanced Life magazine.
